
Academic Community Assembly

Thursday, 12 May 2016, 2 pm
Great Hall, Carolinum

The academic community will gather in an ancient building which has been part of the university since 1383. The representatives of European and world universities and prominent public leaders of the Czech Republic will turn this meeting into a significant social event. Among speakers will be the Prime Minister of the Czech Republic Bohuslav Sobotka, rector of the Charles University prof. Tomáš Zima, art historian prof. Jiří Kuthan and rector of the University of Geneva, prof. Yves Flückiger.

